First Sunday in Lent

Lent, from the Latin quadragesima, 'fortieth,' is a penitential season of preparation for Easter commemorating the 40 days Jesus spent fasting in the desert and enduring temptation before beginning his public ministry. In Western churches, Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, six and a half weeks before Easter, and is marked by fasting, prayer, charity, and self-reflection on our discipleship with Christ.

PSALM FOR MEDITATION: Psalm 25:1-6, NRSV

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame; do not let my enemies exult over me. Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame; let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous. Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long. Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

QUOTE FOR MEDITATION:

"Hope is a song in a weary throat."

—Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray

PRELUDE & LIGHTING OF THE ALTAR CANDLES

CALL TO WORSHIP

Jackie Womack

One: Lenten travelers, when you feel the security of God's love, the affirmation of God's call, and are covered in God's grace...

All: God comes near.

One: When you feel deserted and alone, starving and parched for a caring hand or an encouraging word, troubled and uncertain as the ground under you shifts like sand...

All: God comes near.

One: When you feel emboldened to act, inspired to speak, energized to live as bearers of the good news that the Kingdom of God is here...

All: God comes near.

One: In all seasons of our lives, God comes near to us and does not forsake us.

All: We gather to come near to God whose ever-present love remains near no matter where our journey takes us. Amen.

HYMN OF RESPONSE #85 I Woke Up This Morning

Tune: Woke Up This Morning

HEBREW SCRIPTURE READING

Genesis 9: 8-17 (NRSV)

Jackie Womack

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

God said, “This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

CHORAL ANTHEM: I Want Jesus to Walk with Me - African American spiritual, arranged by Christopher Aspaas

I want Jesus to walk with me; I want Jesus to walk with me; all along my pilgrim journey,
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.

In my trials, Lord, walk with me; in my trials, Lord, walk with me, walk with me; when my heart is almost breaking, Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.

I know Jesus will walk with me; I know Jesus will walk with me; all along my pilgrim journey,
Lord, I know Jesus will walk with me. Lord, walk with me.

EPISTLE READING

1 Peter 3:13-22, NRSV

Trent Williams

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God’s will, than to suffer for doing evil.

For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water.

And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

One: The Word of God for the people of God.

All: God is still speaking. Thanks be to God!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Dan De Leon

Heavenly Father, Heavenly Mother, holy and blessed is your true name.
We pray for your reign of peace to come, we pray that your good will be done, let heaven and earth become one.
Give us this day the bread we need, give it to those who have none.
Let forgiveness flow like a river between us, from each one to each one.
Lead us to holy innocence beyond the evil of our days—come swiftly Mother, Father, come.
For yours is the power and the glory and the mercy: forever your name is All in One.
Amen.

“BROKEN”: REAL LIFE AND REAL FAITH, FEB 20, 6:30pm: On Tuesdays during Lent, we will gather in the sanctuary at 6:30pm to watch an episode of the 2017 BBC drama series “Broken” and have conversation about how faith and real life intersect. Even if you can't make every week, you are welcome to attend, and can view the episodes you might have missed on Amazon Prime or Britbox. Please be advised that the themes can be intense, including suicidal ideation and the intersection of race and police violence. This week we will view episode 2.
